

Mission, Strategy and Scorecards Online

How to lead your team on a real mission.

Part of the Strategic Leader Certification

Your instructor:

Matt Kanz is Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Jack Link's Protein Snacks. He was most recently their Director of Continuous Improvement. Matt supports a global network of locations, feeding team members wild side through sustainable change. He holds a bachelor's degree in Technical Management and has spent nearly 20 years creating, developing and leading teams. Early in his career, Matt led an award-winning greenfield project, engineered a major site turnaround and orchestrated a multi-year and site consolidation.

Leaders that know what is at stake give their team a real reason to get results and don't worry about putting posters on a wall. This course will provide attendees with a framework to develop a mission people want to work towards, a strategy to accomplish it, and scorecards that provide practical feedback.

Tools and Topics Learned Include:

- Distinguish competitive alternatives
- Understand how organizations make a profit
- Formulate your own mission and strategy
- Design a scorecard and distinguish leading & lagging indicators
- Align mission, strategy and scorecard concepts
