

Assessing and Influencing Culture Online

How to evaluate company culture to ensure the success of your strategy

Part of the Strategic Leader Certification

Your instructor:

Matt Kanz is Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Jack Link's Protein Snacks. He was most recently their Director of Continuous Improvement. Matt supports a global network of locations, feeding team members wild side through sustainable change. He holds a bachelor's degree in Technical Management and has spent nearly 20 years creating, developing and leading teams. Early in his career, Matt led an award-winning greenfield project, engineered a major site turnaround and orchestrated a multi-year and site consolidation.

To make recommendations on what to change about a culture, we first need to understand the current culture and history. This course will help learners adapt a 5-part process to assess their own culture and ultimately make strategic recommendations to improve it.

Tools and Topics Learned Include:

- Identify alignment of objectives to strategy
- Utilize company financials to determine trends & opportunities
- Interpret company values both stated and unstated
- Distinguish org charts and distribution of talent
- Evaluate company culture to ensure future success
- Identify SME's already in the business to support execution
- Formulate action plan based on culture case study
